

PROFESSIONAL REVIEW

What is it?

The Professional Review is the final stage in gaining the CIOB Chartered qualification. Successful candidates are entitled to use the designation MCIQB and the title Chartered Construction Manager.

Who will be mentoring me?

Candidates will be assisted at the workshop by one of our experienced tutors; Gerard Graham FCIQB, Roger Gillespie FCIQB, Brian McMullen FCIQB or Paul Andrews FCIQB. For further details please see our website or our Company Profile.

Who is eligible?

To be eligible candidates must have met the CIOB academic and experience requirements. Training LMS can assist with this at an early stage to confirm your eligibility.

What is involved

The Professional Review involves the submission of an experience and competence report complete with supporting documentation such as a CV, organisation chart and CPD information.

Training LMS offers a two day report writing workshop to facilitate the completion of this application.

How is it delivered?

Candidates will be given detailed guidance on how best to demonstrate their competence and experience by tutors Roger Gillespie FCIQB, Gerard Graham FCIQB, Brian McMullen FCIQB or Paul Andrews FCIQB. During the workshop candidates will write up an initial draft report.

What happens after the workshop?

Feedback will be provided on the initial draft submission prior to being formally assessed by one of our CIOB approved assessors, for recommendation to the CIOB for Chartership.
